Morning

Founder on a mission

Any Morning was born from the expertise of the BiggBrands ecosystem—a global powerhouse in e-commerce and logistics for over 20 years. Across our operational network spanning from New York to Dubai, and Istanbul to Cologne, we have spent years analyzing the evolving trends and expectations of millions of customers.

Throughout this journey, we recognized that consumers seek more than just a cup of coffee; they desire to experience that 'glorious brew' moment in the comfort of their homes, with professional-grade precision. Our market research revealed a significant gap: there were limited options that combined high-performance brewing technology with modern kitchen aesthetics at an accessible price point.

Any Morning emerged as the answer to this need, fusing BiggBrands' global supply chain strength with our 'New Everyday' vision. Our goal extends beyond manufacturing machines; by blending the energy of colors and design elegance with functionality, we aim to ensure you start your day with a smile and an extra boost of motivation.

Today, with a network reaching over 95 countries, we deliver technologies that do justice to nature's finest coffee beans, offering a

Owning the Untapped 'Home Barista' Market in the Region

Market Size Globally & Regionally

- Global Reach: The Global Coffee Machines Market is valued at ~$18B (2024) and is projected to reach $26.4B by 2032, growing at a CAGR of 5.0%.
- Drinkware Opportunity: Simultaneously, the Global Travel Mug & Drinkware market is surging, valued at ~$13.3B, driven by the sustainable and on-the-go lifestyle trends.
- MENA Potential: The MENA market is experiencing double-digit growth. Saudi Arabia and the UAE are the largest markets in the region, boasting one of the highest per capita coffee consumption rates globally.

Category Evolution & The "Smart-Style" Whitespace

- The Shift: Consumers have moved beyond basic appliances. The market is now driven by the "Home Barista" trend—users demanding professional brewing quality at home.
- The Gap: Despite high demand, the market is polarized between "Expensive/Complex" machines and "Cheap/Low-Design" options.
- Positioning: Any Morning fills this clear whitespace as the first "Design-Led & Smart" brand in the region with mainstream accessibility.
